

How Can the PRC Benefit You?

The Parent Resource Center conducts workshops on issues that parents, teachers and students are faced with today. We keep resources current by collaborating with other community agencies and attending various workshops and trainings throughout the year. Our goal is to provide parents/grandparents and educators with information and/or resources to address their needs. Our tapes, books and video library can be checked out by families/teachers for support with issues such as homework, study strategies, AD/HD, autism, social skills, gifted education, and other educational needs. All resources can be used in the home or in the classroom.

Please call or email if you would like more information on:

- * Child's disability
- * Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC)
- * Special Education Advisory Committee (SEAC)
- * Starting a support group
- * Mental Health concerns
- * To be added to our mailing/ emailing list

Parent Resource Center
Located behind the OLD Bowling Green Elementary School /
School Board office—in the Trailer

SPED PRC:
Catherine Gregory
Director of Special Education
804-633-5088

Susan Gayle
Parent Resource Coordinator

Title I PRC:
Dolly Lindsay
Director of Educational and Federal Programs
804-633-5088

Jessie Rollins
Title I Parent Involvement Coordinator

Visit us on the web:
<http://prc.blogs.ccps.us/>

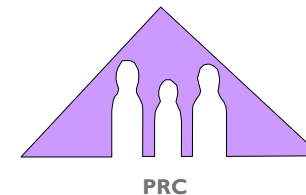

Caroline County Public Schools does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability in employment or provisions of service.

Caroline County Public Schools
Parent Resource Center
16221 Richmond Turnpike
Bowling Green, VA 22427

Phone: 804-633-7083
Fax: 804-633-3109 / 5563
E-mail: sgayle@ccps.us
jrollins@ccps.us

Caroline County Public Schools

Parent Resource Center

Promoting a Partnership Between Families and Caroline County Schools

Telephone: 804-633-7083

What is a Parent Resource Center?

The Parent Resource Center is an information center for all Caroline County families, grandparents, teachers and others concerned about the care and education of children.

Materials are made available to the PRC through funding from the Title I Program, Special Education, Title VI and local funds. It is designed to be the bridge connecting educators and families by promoting the Parent/Teacher partnership.

The Parent Resource Center provides:

- ⇒ Workshops for families and educators
- ⇒ Newsletters and E-newsletters to inform families of current issues in education and resources available locally
- ⇒ Referral services to help families locate specific local, state, and national agencies
- ⇒ A lending library of books, newsletters, videos, DVDs, and educational training materials
- ⇒ Information on a wide variety of topics including: Gifted Education, Adult Education, care giving for the elderly, volunteering in the community, behavior issues, and much more

The PRC is located behind Bowling Green Elementary School in Trailer #1

When is the Center Open?

The Parent Resource Center is open
Monday—Friday 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
(other hours by appointment)

When schools are closed, the PRC is closed.

A Portion of the PRC Lending Library

Who Staffs the Center?

Susan Gayle, Parent Resource Coordinator for SPED

sgayle@ccps.us

Jessie Rollins, Title I Parent Involvement Coordinator

jrollins@ccps.us

How Can You Help Your Children at Home?

Bring us your concerns and we will brainstorm together. We offer support from pre-kindergarten to graduation.

Do you need a listening ear? We are here to help.

PRC staff can help you create Make-it/Take-it activities for reinforcement in reading and math to make learning fun!

Gain a knowledge of new study strategies that may be useful with older students.

Come by for supportive materials for SOL's and homework.

Do you suspect your child may have a disability? Do you need to prepare for meetings? Would you like to know the Special Education process?

Give us a call or email us with your concerns.

Parent Resource Center
16221 Richmond Turnpike
Bowling Green, VA 22427

Phone: 804-633-7083
Fax: 804-633-3109 / 5563
E-mail: sgayle@ccps.us
jrollins@ccps.us

